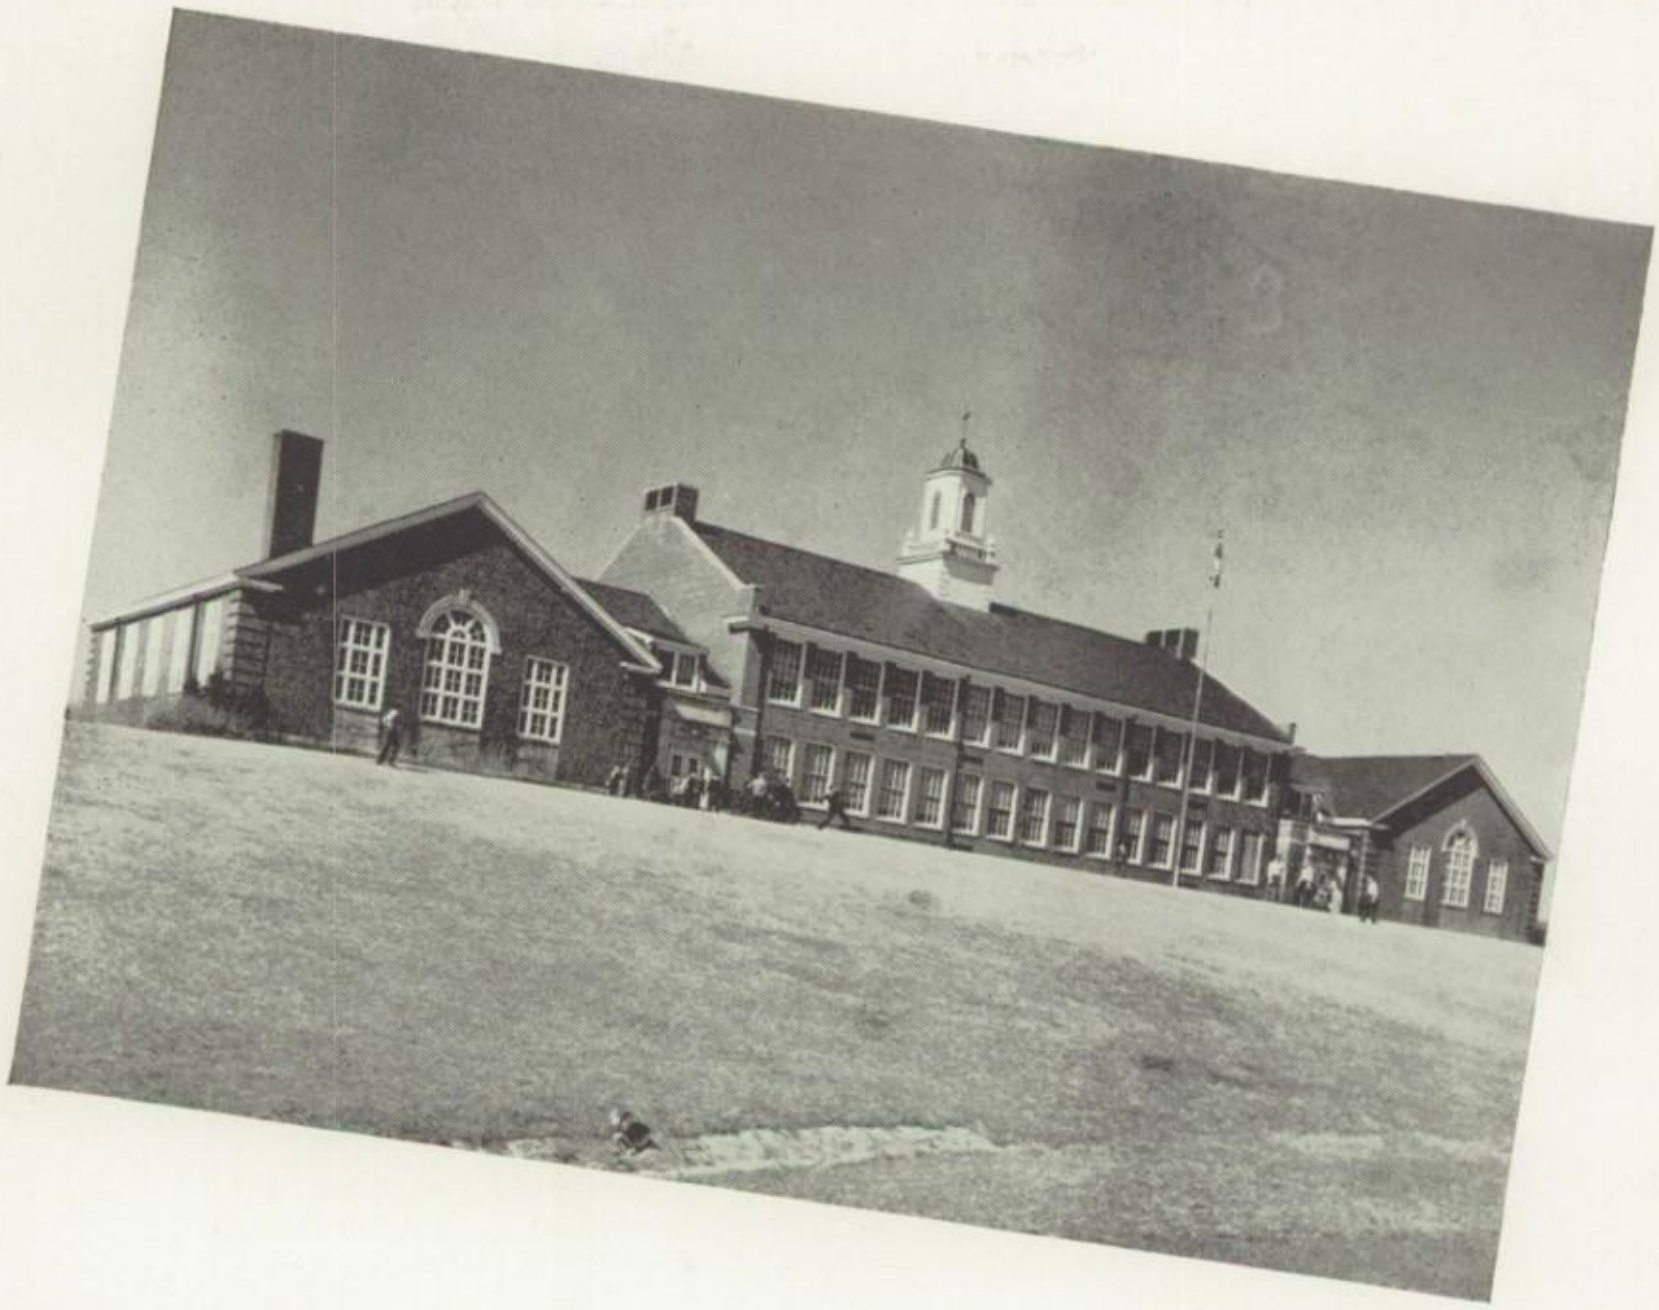
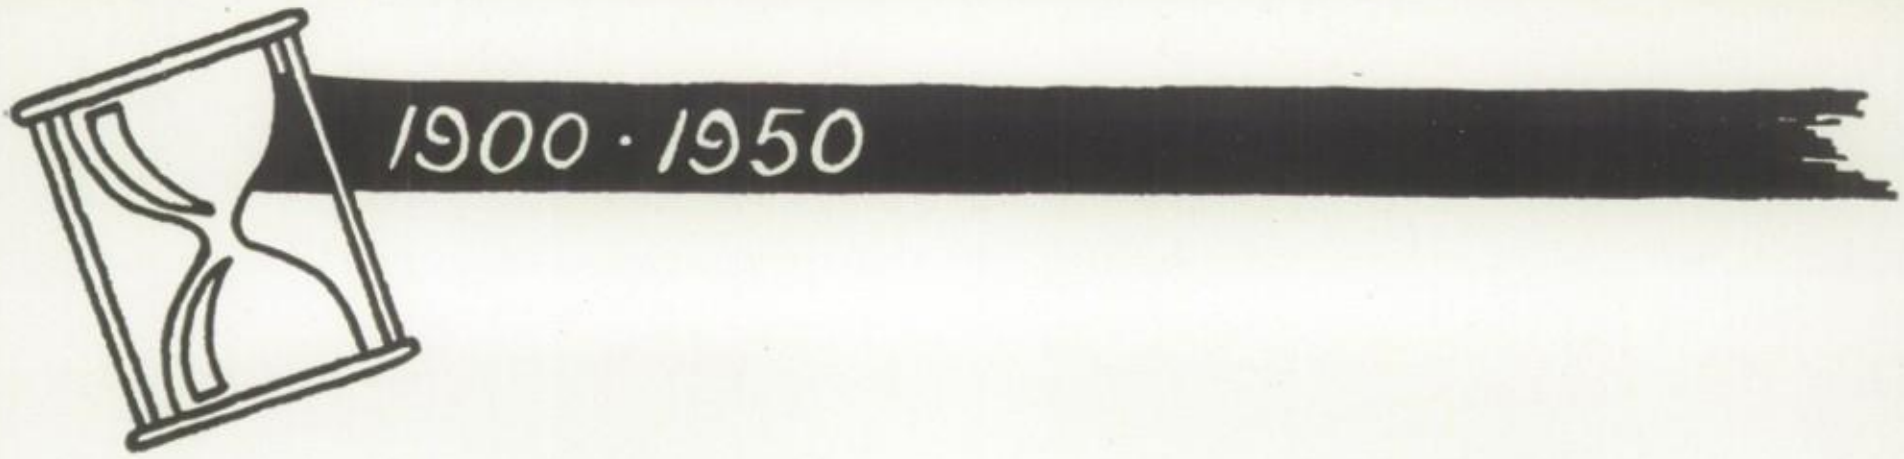
A HALF CENTURY OF PROGRESS AT SELINSGROVE HIGH SCHOOL

1950





FOREWORD

On our trudge through life we have come all too quickly to 1950, the mid-century. It is an important year to the world in general, and to us in particular, for it is our graduation year, the very crossroad of life itself. We are called upon to weigh carefully our abilities and life's demands. The decisions made now will be our compass for the path ahead. Knowing not what awaits us on our journey into the future, we tarry a moment at this cross-road and attempt to recapture some of the spirits, events, and personalities that have made our high school life a cherished experience. We present this book as a record of the past when the dust of time's road shall have clouded our memories.

DEDICATION

We fully realize that our class, the class of '50, is a group whose talents and abilities are numerous and varied. We possess what may be aptly defined as "potential greatness" in many fields of endeavor.

As individuals, class members are gifted with youth, health, ambition, and education, besides being born in the world's most prosperous nation where opportunity and success are watchwords.

This book is dedicated to the sincere desire that we may have a chance to mature fully and to apply our skills in a world blessed by peace rather than blighted by a chaotic third world war. We hope to realize our fondest dreams in the years following our graduation, dreams possible only in a free, peaceful world under a democratic system called The American Way of Life.

CLASS HISTORY

With our days as "Seals" numbered, we begin to scan the school scene, searching for successors to fill our shoes as Seniors. It will be a difficult task, but it falls to an active and capable group of Juniors. We proudly hand our title to this class, which we are confident will be equal to the trust.

Among other achievements, a corn-sprinkled minstrel show and after-the-game dances were staged by this group. Toward spring the theatrical bug bit, and a nostalgic "Gay Nineties Revue" came forth, followed by the annual jitter-bug high spot of the social year, the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Juniors are well stocked with athletes, musicians, and students, who are a credit to our school.

CLASS HISTORY

This year we welcomed the grass-green Sophomores to our "castle on the hill." They caught on quickly though, and were soon going to their lockers at the correct time, as well as, remembering both their combinations and locker numbers (in most cases). The Sophomores proved an ambitious lot, with a candy sale and smartly staged Christmas dance. They succeeded in placing members in forensic contests, on varsity and J. V. squads, and fulfilled their traditional duty by throwing the Spring Hop.

Summarizing, we conclude that the class is a capable crew (more independent financially than either Juniors or Seniors) and worthy to be advanced a notch, perhaps eventually to the high estate of "Seniors."

This fall, the Seals took the field under their brand new coach, Richard Smoker. "Smoke" proved to be a rugged trainer, and soon earned the respect and friendship of his boys. A scrappy team represented our school and although its won-lost record was not overly impressive, it succeeded in taking a full measure of larger foes, losing five heart-breaking games by a one touchdown margin, including a moral and physical beating administered to our arch rival Sunbury. The Seals outscored their opponents and were at all times a credit to our school.

The 1949-1950 basketball season developed into one of the most exciting and highly successful in Selinsgrove High School history. Coach Blair Heaton in his third year at our school led a lanky Seal squad, including nine Seniors, to undisputed championship in both halves of the Susquehanna League, first league championship since 1933. In the State semi-finals, the Seals bowed in heart-breaking fashion to Shamokin's Greyhounds, Keystone League Champions. The squad compiled a record of 19 wins against 6 losses and at all times was a credit to itself and our school.

MUSIC FORENSICS

The girls' ensemble, as winner of the county contest, will be our group representative in the district contest at State College, April 14. If they are winners in this contest, they are qualified to go to Pittsburgh for the state finals.

These girls have developed a standard of singing seldom achieved. To Mrs. Hoke who worked as hard as they, we say, "Thank you for your help, effort, and patience."

Selinsgrove High School is very proud of her representatives in the vocal and instrumental solos. The winners, Nancy Lepley and Shirley Rowe, will go to State College for the district contest, and we hope will represent us in the state finals also.

First Row —B. Garman, M. Troutman, K. Bolig, S. Yearger, J. Gilbert.
Second Row—G. Keller, W. Bone, J. Soper, D. Bordner, H. Lesher.

SPEECH FORENSICS

As in the past, Selinsgrove High School entered contestants in the Forensic Contests and this year captured seven events. The winners are: David Schoch, Margaret Troutman, William Bone, Harry Lesher, Bernice Garman, Joyce Gilbert, and Jerry Soper. These persons are eligible to compete in the district contests at State College, April 14.

We are sincerely grateful to Miss Eva Herman, Miss Philipps, Mrs. Bedeaux, and Miss Phoebe Herman for their expert guidance and patience in helping to make this year a successful one.

MUSIC

MR. RAY FULMER
Instrumental Music

Mr. Fulmer, our band director, has succeeded in arousing our pride in the Selinsgrove High School band. The presence of these musicians at the various athletic events, as well as at the annual band concert, is always gratifying. We extend our best wishes to Mr. Fulmer, with the hope that he may continue for many years in the field of music.

MRS. JUNE HOKE
Vocal Music

Mrs. Hoke, our vocal music teacher and chorus director has made music one of the most beautiful arts in life for us. Her charming personality, as well as her invaluable instruction as a teacher, result in winning for her the admiration and esteem of those who know her. We find pleasure in associating with Mrs. Hoke, and we sincerely hope she may continue for many years to bring music closer to the hearts of young people.

CALENDAR

September

6—The faithful return to the fold.
9—Wham! Bam! Varsity squares off against Lewistown. Brown becomes an astronomer (sees stars)—counts 17 fingers on coach's right hand—returns to game and scores touchdown—Seals bow anyhow 20-12.
13—Dig that cat! Shades of Smilin' Jack, its Coach Richard Smoker.
16—Schoch plays Ironman—Rupert mauls tin cans in pep meeting—Danville holds Seals to 6-6 deadlock.
26—"Doc" Herrold teaches commercial first aid class. (The girls needed personal instruction).

October

14—Everyone out for blood—Seals outplay Sunbury in first downs 9-6, yardage gained 196-130, lose by 18-13 score. Keller laid up with grippe; hears game by radio.
16—Cheerleaders get snappy new uniforms. (Those red tights are pretty cute.)
21—Jim VanBuskirk kicks field goal first in goodness knows when! Tough luck Varsity loses in final minute of play, to South Side 16-13.
25—Seals' grid captain thrown for loss in P. O. D.
27—Motley looking crew of Senior (?) Gypsies enter Hollow'een parade—Sings song no one hears, including some of (?) Gypsies.
29—New parkas and new spirit—Fahnestock gallops 54 yards, to pay dirt as Seals blank Norry 7-0—Juniors throw Hallow'een Dance. (Boo!) Joy reigns supreme.
30—School windows soaped by Hallow'eeners. Could it possibly be that someone doesn't like school!

November

1—Notice to farmers: Keep cows, chickens, dogs and cats indoors; hunting season opens in Pennsylvania.
3-4—Institute—teachers get hints on how to handle us. Blunt weapon theory discarded.
6—Nace falls on his face on path to glory as Seals thump Miffs, 33-0.
12—The crowd roars (all five of them) as Varsity rolls over Mahanoy Joint 51-0—Twelve seniors hang up gear for last time.
14-17—Legion Show—"Ah! Been two hours stuffin dis heah chicken, and I'm mad enough to kill it,"—Yuk! Yuk!
25—Silver voiced orators, Troutman and Spotts, take to the air in "Voice of Democracy" contest.
26—Look at the size of 'em! Seal basketball hopefuls take the floor. Blair shouts, and even the mice stop dead in their tracks.
29—Wanta buy a magazine? Subscription race is on.

December

2—Students serve as guinea pigs. (Practice teachers invade S.H.S.)
9—Gilbert reveals all in Senior Class Play, "Tattletale." Ermintrude makes a hit. (Seaman didn't miss a single rehearsal.)
10—Click. Click. Knitting needles are flying. Girls making argyles for their sweethearts.
14—Senior TRIG Class reverses Miss Laudenslager's decision.
15—Bill Rowe tries to cut his finger nails on a rip saw. Gets a little too close and nips off the tip of his thumb.
17—Christmas cards for sale! Reduced prices! See Seniors.
20—Mistletoe banned.
22—Vacation begins with long session. Merry Christmas.
23—Sophomores stage successful juke box dance.

January

1—Happy (?) New Year!
3—School reopens. Sports fans mourn, as Keller sprains ankle in first basketball game of the season.
4—Gangway—clear the roads. Monthly drivers' tests, and guess who passed? (His initials are Wallace Wagner.)
6—Seals lose heartbreaker to Milton 42-43. Woe is me!
10—Richards gets a crew cut. (Could that have any relation with the assembly program in which an S. U. student substituted for Mrs. Hoke?)
12—Class elections. Robinson victorious. Receives a bottle of aspirin as inaugaration gift.
13—Friday. Need we say more?
20—Seniors sprain their brains while taking I. Q. Tests. Average score—0.
25—Grit your teeth and say cheese. Cynosure pictures.
27—Seals emerge first half champs of Susquehanna League.

CALENDAR

February

5—Junior girls get light headed—that is, light haired. Sale of peroxide advanced 75%. (Looks bad doesn't it?)
12—Long session. Thanks, Abe.
16—Junior Commercials score hit with minstrel show. Al (John Thorpe) Jolson steals show.
17—Seals-Bloom game develops into wrestling match. Seals victorious despite the odds.
22—Washington's birthday. Classes entertained (?) by Senior Academic assembly program.
23—Seals crush Norry. Everyone celebrates. (Huh, Keller?)
27—Seals defeat Miffs and capture Susquehanna League Pennant. Boys, we love you!

March

2—Jack, the barefoot boy, Keller lands on bench when Shultz takes over Senior Chemistry class.
8—Skeets doubles for Mrs. Gemberling as office girl.
11—Buckets of tears flow at S.H.S. as Seals lose to Shamokin 41-31.
15—Oh my achin' back! Jaworek begins baseball practice with calisthenics.
16—It's handle-bar mustaches and bustles, too, as the Juniors present "The Gay Nineties Revue."
20—12-Z stages St. Patricks' Day assembly. (Will the Irish ever forgive us?)
22—Get in your corners and come out fighting. Red Brown takes on shop boys. Second round, he takes place on the bench.
23—Wonderful spring day. No school—snow's too deep.
24—Jim Brouse, thinking he has a tractor, drives into a field to begin spring plowing early.
28—Senior girls get thrill as brave game hunter, Mr. Potteiger, protects them from the ferocious mouse that wandered into their gym class.

April

6—"Dem bones, dem bones"—school royally entertained by Ambassador Quartette.
7—Easter vacation—short but sweet.
15—"Tex" Moyer asks Miss Bittner if he may change typewriters. (The one he had made too many errors.)
21—April showers and spring flowers. Sophs play host at annual spring hop.
24—The end is in sight! Measurements for commencement gowns.
25—What's this, a fashion parade? Oh—the Senior girls are campaigning for votes for Prom Queen.

May

12—Music, Music, Music—band and chorus try again.
24—'Tis a sad day for Selinsgrove High—the class of '50 says good bye. (Senior Farewell).
26—Dancing in the dark (are you kidding?) to "Stardust' at Junior-Senior Prom.
28—Baccalaureate Services—a word of advice and a pat on the back.

June

1—Junior High School Graduation.
2—Presto—chango—we're alumni!

8. Use the word "mass" in a sentence.
9. When do you think your beau will "pop the question?" Whom are you going to marry? How will your husband feel after 50 years of wedded bliss. And what are you going to do on your 50th anniversary.
10. Do you think this is corny?

CYNOSURE SEES

Jack Keller, star first baseman for Ice Plant Brewers.
Earl Brown still looking for a girl that deserves him.
Marlin Koch getting shot.
Neil Conrad, Grant Hoover, and Jim Maust making the Brink robbery look like kid stuff.
Donald McCreary found to be the little man in the flying saucer.
Frank Richards winning the National Open Golf Tourney.
Graduation, Charlie Brown tries again.
John Robinson and Tommy Slayback standing on the corner in Sunbury handing out pictures.
Romig sleeping through a royal flush in his gambling casino.
Baseball's greatest hour, Howard Spigelmyer cleans off the diamond. (Janitor).
Ken Fahnestock giving a play by play account of the Penn State alumni on how we beat Notre Dame.
We dedicate this space to Jim Brouse who eloped with a Sunbury girl and hasn't been heard of since.
Marty Hughes running his truck through the window of Zimmies Cafe in search of Ray Ulrich.
"Tex" Moyer starring in the western drama "Why I Left Home," or "I Shot My Paw and They're After Me."
Kenney Sheaffer winning a contest for public speaking.
Marvin Bonawitz playing his trumpet in Phil Spitalny's all-girl orchestra.
George Sheetz pitching himself to fame in the lot behind the grocery store.
Diplomat Bill Cook serving in Paris as America's answer to Charlie Boyer.
Leon Lemon driving with Joie Chitwoods thrill drivers.

A COWBOY SONG

A Ford V-8 came chuggin' out,
One dark and windy day.
Steam rose from off the engine,
As it rattled on its way.

Then all at once a cloud of dust,
A Chevrolet soon showed.
A roarin' down the highway,
Really burnin' up the road.

The Ford-driver saw a chance to race,
He "U" turned then and there.
And sped after that Chevy,
Like a hound dog after hare.

The racers were determined,
Their jaws were set like steel.
One hand was on the throttle,
And one hand was on the wheel.

On a curve the Ford put on,
A little extra jet.
A tryin' to catch that Chevrolet,
But he ain't caught it yet.

Cause on that bend, a roarin' on,
A Mack truck came my boys.
And flyin' pistons filled the air,
You should'a heard the noise.

Now, Comboys, change your ways or surely,
With them you will ride.
To Sunbury Community Hospital,
With a doctor at your side.

TRUE LOVE

Last night I held a little hand,
So dainty and so neat.
I thought my heart would surely break,
So wildly did it beat.
No other hand in all my life
Can such a comfort bring,
As that dear hand I held last night—
Four aces and a king.

GIRLS

His girl is tall,
His girl is keen,
She dresses like
A village queen.

BUT HIS GIRL IS FICKLE!

My girl is short,
My girl is fat,
She dresses like
An alley cat.

BUT MY GIRL IS TRUE!

Do you think I'd trade girls with him,
Even if I could?
Don't be a fool, dear reader,
You know darn well I would.
